is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.”

Due to the nature of the charges, evidentiary support regarding violations One and Two have been combined. Phillips has paid $45.00, towards his special assessment fee and restitution, with an outstanding balance of $481,298.02. Philips' last payment was made on July 27, 2021, in the amount of $20. The Probation Office notes this is Phillips only payment towards his special assessment or restitution. Phillips reported he was unemployed and not able to make any payments towards the restitution balance.

Previously, Phillips disclosed he was unable to secure employment due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic; however, as of recent, he disclosed having two (2) prospective jobs.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The Probation Office is recommending no Court action be taken at this time to allow Phillips additional time to secure employment and come into compliance with the restitution payment schedule. If Phillips non-compliance continues, the Court will be notified immediately.

Respectfully submitted,
